Judy Sheer Watters

MEMOIR LEGACY AUTHOR
FREELANCE EDITOR & CONSULTANT

All life can be counted as joyful; just some days are more joyful than others. And it's all those days, the joyful and the not so joyful, that makes life worth living. And when you put all those days together, a pattern of life lessons emerges that ultimately becomes your legacy. Judy Watters' love and focus on memoir stems from the realization that her children would never know the richness of their grandparents' lives or her childhood farm unless she put it into writing. Judy's expertise comes from many years of studying the craft of memoir writing. She works closely with others to teach the art of memoir and to help new authors leave the gift of legacy for their families. As Judy sees it, "Everyone has a legacy to leave for their generations to come. Leaving your written legacy and the life lessons learned allows your future generations to realize they are not alone in this journey we call life."

Judy is an author of three memoirs, a freelance writer and editor, founder of Hill Country Christian Writers, and instructor of Hill Country Legacy Writers. She is owner of Franklin Scribes Consultants and loves to work with first-time authors. Judy and her husband reside in Spring Branch, Texas. Along with their three grown children, one daughter-in-law, her first granddaughter, two grandcats, and a one-eyed rescue dog, Lacey, they continue to create a rich legacy of their own.

DR. KEVIN MCGUIRE

AUTHOR, SPEAKER
& SOMMELIER

Dr. Kevin McGuire has spent more than 32 years in cybersecurity, protecting our nation's critical infrastructure systems as both a federal employee and a trusted contractor. His career has placed him on the front lines of digital defense—where technology, policy, and human judgment meet under pressure.

He serves on the Board of the University of Fairfax, where he helps shape programs dedicated to developing the next generation of cybersecurity professionals. His lifelong commitment to the field continues to inspire both his professional work and his writing.

Drawing on decades of real-world experience, Dr. McGuire brings authenticity and depth to Sleeper Code, blending technical precision with the emotional intensity of a human thriller. His stories explore the unseen battles fought every day in the shadows of cyberspace—and the people who quietly keep the modern world running.

He lives with his wife, Traci, and their children—Amanda, Ashleigh, Ryan, and Allie—who remind him daily what's truly worth protecting. Sleeper Code is his debut novel and the first in a planned trilogy about the fragile intersection of humanity and technology.

KENNY ROCHON III

AUTHOR, CODER
HUMANITARIAN,
& PIANIST

Kenny was born blue on flag day June 14 th , 2013. After a miracle of breathe and life was witnessed, he appeared alert beyond comprehension. His curiosity with electric circuitry and puzzles gave hints at age three he was mentally stimulated to learn.

At age five, the pandemic was an interesting blessing due to his father needing to stay home for two years. His father had taught gifted and talented eighth grade children physical science, and based on Kenny's aptitude, he challenged Kenny to learn the periodic table and write his first book. Both came relatively easy for Kenny, and his prolific career as an author took hold of the young man.

He balanced, boy scouts, piano and soccer into his school and writing schedule. He has set his intentions on becoming an Eagle Scout and does yearly Holiday recitals on the piano. Kenny received a letter from President Biden for his book 'Kenny's Favorite Things about America'. He visited the White House with Kidpreneurs of American and was interviewed by Kidpreneurs International at the Canadian Film Festival. Currently, he finished his 14 th book titled 'Kenversations' with his Dad and they tour Canada and the United States for book signings.

Here are some videos of him sharing his philosophies and favorite books:

FRANCINE JUHLIN

WARRIOR PRINCESS
OF PERSONAL CHANGE

My journey began as a health and wellness coach aiming to help people live healthier lives. I soon noticed my clients' transformations mirrored my own growth, revealing deeper patterns in their challenges. This insight expanded my work into public speaking and confidence coaching. I combined this with change management experience to create a practical 6-step process for lasting personal change. However, I consistently see the same barriers to confidence—barriers rooted not in individuals, but in societal programming about our self-worth. My mission has therefore evolved. I now focus on breaking these patterns and reprogramming how we build confidence for the next generation. The goal is a future where everyone can reach their potential, free from outdated societal norms.

I invite you to join me in changing how we think about confidence, for ourselves and for those who follow.

JODI MARTIN

AUTHOR - SPEAKER
COMMUNITY BUILDER
VETERAN & FAMILY MEMBER

I'm Jodi Martin, the author of the Soldier Mom series—a collection of heartfelt stories that celebrate military families, honor, sacrifice, and the American spirit.

As both a writer and a veteran-connected family member, these stories are personal to me. They're not just about uniforms and ceremonies—they're about the quiet moments at home, the values we pass on to our children, and the courage it takes to serve, whether on the frontlines or at the dinner table.

My mission is simple: to help kids and families understand the real meaning of service, sacrifice, loyalty, and love of country. Through relatable characters and honest storytelling, Soldier Mom opens the door to conversations about patriotism, duty, and family resilience.

When I'm not writing, I'm connecting with readers, creating social content that honors America's service members, and building new stories to inspire the next generation.

RELATIONSHIPS,
HEALTH & FINANCIAL ADVISOR

My bride and I both come from normal dysfunctional families, raise your hand if you can relate :) When we first got married our starry eyed quest was to live happily ever after and bring each others dreams to life.

The challenge was, we had no money, like an old cell phone battery we were always in the red. My bride had a low paying high stress job and I had a struggling business.

We drove junky cars and lived in a postage stamp sized rental house. On top of that, I had major sexual baggage from a dark past that I'm still unpacking today.

In-spite of all this we decided to have faith and dream big, we set a goal to get remarried in a different state or country every year.

With lot's of prayer, action and creativity, we have been married over 30 times and yes we have had more than 30 honeymoons! Our story has been featured in media outlets around the world, but this is just the beginning of our story...

What if that one small shift in your mindset could change everything in your world? It can.

That is exactly what happened to me. Emotional childhood trauma, breast cancer, and a traumatic brain injury left me unable to speak. With each experience, I was almost beaten by my circumstances, but I survived. I learned that my trauma doesn't define my life. Instead, I used it as fuel to help light the fire within me. And now I am transferring that very fire to YOU.

As an award-winning international keynote speaker, TEDx speaker, #1 Best-Selling Author, communication coach, and podcaster, I am on a mission to help you launch towards your destiny by overcoming your inner critic and embracing the story within you.

Through my journey, I've discovered that every day is a choice. These lessons learned can be your journey toward being the best version of you, unapologetically.
